At

Barren Heights Retreat

Located near Barren River Lake in southcentral Kentucky, our campus was built for the primary purpose of hosting FREE mini-vacation style weekend retreats for families who have children with disabilities.

"We have no hidden agenda, and simply want you and your family to consider taking advantage of this opportunity to relax, refresh and rejuvenate."

This memorable experience includes scheduled group activities and plenty of family free time.

You provide your own transportation to the facility and we provide everything else.
